

Including Low-Income Women with Children: Program and Policy Directions

WHO?

56 Low-Income Women with Children and Family Resource Centre Service Providers share stories and ideas about the challenges of living on low-income.

WHAT?

This report presents findings and policy implications in 6 key areas:

- Access to Programs and Services
- Housing
- Childcare
- Food
- Education
- Supportive Community Resources

WHY?

Appropriate resources for Low-Income Women with Children in these 6 areas can help to:

Improve Health and Well-Being

Reduce the Depth and Persistence of Poverty

HOW?

Improve health and well-being and reduce poverty for Low-Income Women with Children through:

Social Change

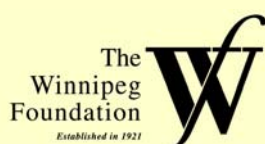

Program and Policy Change

Different women, different families...but the issues stay the same.
Here we are...again!

Community Partnership Opportunity Action Engagement Capacity Empowerment Development Well-Being Participation Inclusion Collaboration

Thank you to the more than 50 women who participated in this report at:
Andrews Street Family Centre Mrs. Lucci's
Anna's House Wolseley Family Place

Funded by

UNIVERSITY
OF MANITOBA

Published by

PRAIRIE WOMEN'S HEALTH
CENTRE OF EXCELLENCE
RESEARCH ■ POLICY ■ COMMUNITY

The full report is available on the web at: www.pwhce.ca or by calling (204) 982-6630.